

Case Study

Rockafella's - Salem, MA

The Challenge

Remodel an historic location with LED lighting, give the location a dash of color while respecting the original architecture

The Solution

Going wireless was the best option. All devices installed required only the existing power to operate and all zoning and configurations were done wirelessly through the App. LED luminaires included a variety of sources including RGBW for both the interiors and the historic facades.