

Case Study

Irving Convention Center - Irving, TX

The Challenge

DMX direct/indirect large scale installation to be controlled wirelessly.

The Solution

C-X4C DMX controllers are deployed throughout the space. Scheduling of scenes and transitions are all resident on the controllers. Because of the large scale of the project and the distance between devices, the design of the system included a series of X-SF Super-friends to boost signal and guarantee radio communication across the building.